Salt Lake City Diocesan Council of Catholic Women
Board Meeting: November 7, 2026

NCCW President's Report

I regret that I cannot be with you at the November 7, 2026, DCCW Board Meeting, either in person or by Zoom, as I will be attending the annual retreat of the Women Lawyers of Utah. November, as you will read, is a busy month for me.

The week of November 16, I will travel to Baltimore, Maryland, to attend the November 2026 Plenary Assembly of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. On my return trip, I will stop in Brookfield, Wisconsin, to visit the site of our 2027 NCCW Convention. Seeing the venue in person will allow me to work with the Convention Committee on the schedule and programming for "Here I Am, Lord: Responding in Service." I look forward to sharing what I learn at future meetings.

November is a month of remembrance and gratitude, and your NCCW offers several ways to observe this month. An NCCW Mass Card, available at the NCCW online store, allows you to remember a deceased loved one or give thanks for a special person at one of our Convention Masses. On the Members Only Resource page, the Vigil for a Deceased Member and the NCCW Prayers Compilation are available for download. I also invite you to join the November Council Chat on November 10, which will focus on showing appreciation and gratitude for our Councils of Catholic Women.

I wish you all a blessed November and a happy Thanksgiving. Until we meet again, may Our Lady of Good Counsel pray for us.

Respectfully submitted,

Amy Kennedy,
NCCW President
